

LEAVING

Leaving, I should've told you I was leaving
I should have told you I was blind
Just to help you change your mind

Been here for a while now
And I don't wanna go
Waiting for the right time
To tell you what you should know
I feel it in my head
I feel it in my heart

But I'm running out of little things to keep me beside you

CHORUS X 2

Nice to see you smile now
But I gotta let you go
Surely it's goodbye now
To all the things we know
Feeling little sad
Feeling little mad

But now I gotta go back to where it all began

CHORUS X 2

It's been a little while
It's been more time
That I wish I wouldn't stand here and sigh
And now, all I have to say is that I'm doing ok
But missing you

THE BLUES AGAIN

I've got the blues my friend
I've got the blues again

I know that I am more than I have been
But just can't seem to want to walk away
I'm used to being in this gloomy state
I see it all fall back into its place

Sometimes I shut it from my head
But then it creeps back with me into bed
I try to fight it out with my skin
And soon I find myself welcoming it

CHORUS X 2

I feel a shadow coming, coming unto me
I feel this music echoing inside my head
Ready to take me over to the other end
I feel like dancing to this twisted beat
Let the spirit make me move my feet
But I don't want to get to the other side
I just want to go for the ride
I've got the blues

CHORUS X 4

Don't need to worry about my state of mind
I'm gonna change and soon I'll be fine
I'm gonna grab this shadow by its chain
And throw it back from where it once came

THE LIFE YOU CHOOSE

Every kid has at one time or another, heard this story
Catch the villains, save the crown and get all the glory
You go down that road and then, you get caught up again
And it's no fairytale to tell

Of the wolf better beware
He's not the one you ought to dare
Cause it's winding, it's winding
A crossroad here then a dead end there

So pass the shortcut
Ohhh aohh aohh ah ah
The life you chose is the life you make

You can't just walk away, not, not in this story
Kill the monsters, save the town and get all the glory
Don't take that road my friend, cause the monsters they fall
Then they wake up again, and it's no fairytale to tell

CHORUS X 1

You wanted a lot more, a lot more
So you went out for so much more, so much more
But the road from here and there is winding
And the things you really cared for are blinding so
Who to choose, the sinner or the Saint? I said
There's multiple ways to contemplate
The life you choose is the life you make

The life you chose is the life you make X 2

PIECES

They ask me where I've been this week
It's not here, and this is not me
I don't know how you can't see
How you can't believe it's real

The windows here are filled with steel
These bars they can't keep me
From dreaming that dream
That I am out at sea

And this world is one big ship
Without it I cannot live
And I know what I'm feeling
And no one is steering

Pieces, pieces of me
I'm losing pieces of my soul
And I can't go back no more
X 2

They want to look inside my head
I know they're looking for a thread
A strand of pearls they rearrange
They've got the sailor in a cage

They want to numb me with their plans
Destroy and crush me cause they can
No one else is here with me
They are sleeping peacefully

REPEAT CHORUS X 2

REPEAT CHORUS X 4

I'm on my own mission
No more of my submission
Don't need noone's permission
It's time for recognition

CHORUS X 2

DON'T WANNA BE ALONE

Tick, Tock

I have locked up myself in this dream and I see no one else around
I'm suddenly here on my own, and I'm drowning, drowning with nowhere to hide
I am playing myself these films, these slices of my life, as if my end was near
And I'm running, running away from here

Tick, Tock X 2

I am losing myself, sinking deep in these memories
I feel the blood in my tears, and I'm falling, falling in a colorless sky
I have painted these walls with things that are not real to me, to cover my fears
And I'm losing, losing what used to be me

Tick, Tock

Don't wanna be alone
Don't wanna be alone
Don't you leave me here my friends, oh no
REPEAT X 2

I'd like to say I'm sorry, for it all, I see it so so small
My clock is ticking away, but I am still here to stay
I have to stay here a while, I think I'm gonna be alright

REPEAT CHORUS X 3
Don't wanna be alone X 5

SOLDIER

Why are you blind?
You don't have a clue

You're held up, shocked u , all inside of you
Messed up, locked up, no one else but you
Made up, cooked up
Why are you blind?

So don't tell me you are some kind of soldier
You know the truth it's just another murder
So keep telling lies, no compromises
You cocked your gun and there were reprises

Why are you blind?
You don't have a clue

You're made up, cooked up, you don't like the truth
Carved up, dolled up, you don't want you
Tearred up, dried up
Why are you blind?

Why are you blind? X 2
Hounded aren't you? All inside of you
You don't have a clue; It's a sad sad view
Breaking aren't you?
